

1 - Aberdeen YMCA	Aberdeen	$9,232.40
2 - allPOINTS Health Alcester Clinic	Alcester	$12,450.63
3 - allPOINTS Health Elk Point Clinic	Elk Point	$11,348.75
4 - Aurora County	Plankinton	$11,146.80
5 - City of Eureka	Eureka	$2,176.25
6 - City of Faulkton	Faulkton	$2,921.25
7 - City of Hot Springs	Hot Springs	$11,716.60
8 - City of Leola	Leola	$3,141.25
9 - Davison County	Mitchell	$10,846.40
10 - Doland School District	Doland	$11,047.10
11 - Edmunds County	Ipswich	$8,417.50
12 - Grow SD	Sisseton	$9,662.06
13 - Jackson County Library	Kadoka	$2,661.25
14 - John Paul II School	Mitchell	$5,847.40
15 - Leola Public Library	Leola	$1,238.00
16 - Prairie Community Health	Isabel	$12,383.61
17 - St. Thomas School	Madison	$12,881.60
18 - Sturgis Public Library	Sturgis	$12,610.00

The South Dakota Broadband Initiative has completed its third round of grant awards. These awards provide vital technology upgrades to South Dakota Community Anchor Institutions to help ensure their success in the 21st century.

Projects totaling over $150,000 were made possible.

Are you on the map?

To ensure your location has a stable and reliable computing environment, take advantage of a technology assessment at no charge through the South Dakota Broadband Initiative.

Eligible Institutions

Municipalities - Libraries - Public Safety offices

Medical & healthcare facilities

K-12 schools - Higher education

Government & tribal offices

Connect with us and learn more!
broadband.sd.gov

broadband@state.sd.us
(605) 773-4165

"The technology assessment was a great opportunity to brainstorm with a neutral third party who had our best interests in mind. We received a long-term planning tool to help us grow and evolve our network to meet future needs."

-Lisa M. Katzenstein, HR Coordinator, City of Sturgis-